Product Overview

If you prefer a professional quality webcam that can go wherever you go and adapt to any situation, the Mac-compatible Logitech HD Webcam C615 — with its fold-and-go design and Tripod-ready base — makes it easy to take your webcam with you. Whether you want to make an HD 720p video call at home, at the hotel or at the office, or record professional 1080p videos in the studio on a PC or Mac, the C615 webcam is ready to go.

Key Features

- Full 1080p HD lets you capture videos in breathtaking detail anytime, anywhere.
- HD 720p video calls on Skype™, FaceTime® for Mac, Logitech Vid™ HD and Windows Live™ Messenger
- One-click upload to Facebook™, YouTube® and Twitter makes it easy to record and share HD videos.
- Fold-and-go design lets you take your webcam with you wherever you go.
- 360-degree full-rotation lets you swivel the webcam for calling and recording at any angle.
- Tripod-ready base gives you the flexibility needed for professional 1080p HD video recording.
- 8-megapixel photos (software enhanced) for capturing high-resolution photos.
- Auto focus so you can zoom in on what matters most to you.
- Built-in mics with noise reduction helps ensure that everyone hears the real you.
- Logitech Fluid Crystal™ Technology helps ensure that each video call or recording offers crystal-clear images with smooth, fluid motion and rich, true-to-life colors, even in the real world.
- A three-foot USB cable and additional three-foot USB cable extender provide extra length and mobility so you can turn the webcam on and have the freedom to move around
